
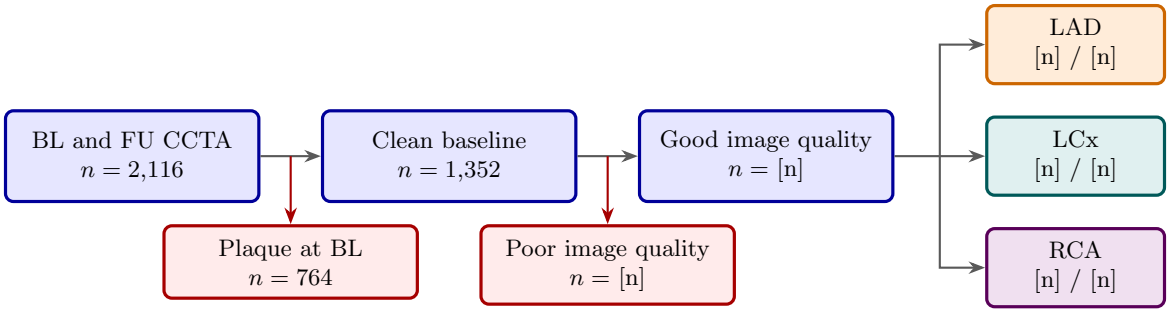

Figure 1: Restriction of the Herlev–Østerbro data to the study cohort. A clean baseline means that no plaque or stenosis was recorded in any coronary segment at baseline. The same cohort entered all three artery models, shown as participants / participants with new plaque (minimal stenosis or worse) anywhere in the artery's proximal, mid, or distal segment at follow-up. BL, baseline; FU, follow-up.